Location: Bunaken National Park, Indonesia
Reference: I1

The island of Bunaken is situated in Manado Bay. With its deep, clear and warm waters it is home to astoundingly high numbers of corals and fish species. This is due to the oceanic currents that carry along with it food and nutrients, attracting a variety of marine life ranging from big pelagics to tiny critters.

HIGHLIGHTS

Deep wall dives covered with corals and filled with caves and crevices. Huge pelagic fans are found all over Bunaken which houses one of the most photographed macro subject, the Pygmy seahorse. If macro diving is not your cup of tea Bunaken also offers sharks, great schooling trevallies, jacks and also the solitary giant barracuda.

ACCOMMODATION

Tasik Ria Spa & Resort.

BEST SEASON

Diving is great all year around with the dry season from March – October.

PACKAGE COST

USD 490 excluding flights to Manado for 4 days 3 nights at the Tasik Ria resort or similar. It includes 6 boat dives, unlimited house reef dives, twin sharing, all meals and land transfers.
